Course Policies and Grading

1. Course Delivery Mode: This is an online course and therefore there will not be any face-to-face class sessions. All course materials, interactions, and exams will utilize internet technologies. Narrated slides will be posted on Blackboard. See “Technical Requirements” section for more information.
2. Email and Internet: You must have an active Stony Brook University e-mail account and access to the Internet. All instructor correspondence will be sent to your SBU e-mail account. Please plan on checking your SBU email account regularly for course related messages. This course uses Blackboard for the facilitation of communications between faculty and students, submission of assignments or exams, and posting of grades. The Blackboard Course Site can be accessed at <https://blackboard.stonybrook.edu>.
3. Technical Requirements: This course requires that you have access to a computer that can access the internet. You will need to have access to, and be able to use, the following computer set-up and software packages:

¹Hereafter FLS.

- Web browser (Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Safari, etc.)
 - PDF Reader (Adobe Acrobat Reader DC, Preview, etc.)
 - Word processing software (Microsoft Word, Pages, etc.)
 - Presentation software (E.g., Microsoft PowerPoint.)
4. Readings: Students are expected to read the assigned chapters from the textbook (see Class Schedule). Since this course in the winter session offers the same amount of credit as in a normal semester, the workload will be relatively intense. The amount of the assigned readings typically includes three to four chapters per week. If you did not buy the textbook, read and listen to the narrated slides carefully. The slides will be posted before the start of each learning unit (see Class Schedule).
5. Participation/Attendance: Participation in class means reading the assigned readings and reviewing all information required for that learning unit. You may log into Zoom during the regular office hours if you have any question. Attendance in an online course means logging into the Blackboard on a regular basis and participating in all of the activities that are posted online in the course. Both parts are important to earning a passing grade.
6. Exams (100%): There will be two midterm exams (30% each) and a cumulative final exam (40%). All of them will be held online. The two midterm exams consist of 15 multiple-choice questions each and have a time limit of 40 minutes. The final exam consists of 20 multiple-choice questions and has a time limit of 50 minutes. You earn two percent of semester grade by answering each question correctly. You have to start taking the exams between the posted and the due dates (see Exam Dates) and have to finish them in one sitting (within the time limit). You can take the exam at wherever you want but it is your responsibility to find a place with stable internet connection. I will not accept any retake of the exams because of connection problems. You are free to refer to any resources but discussion with others is not allowed. These exams constitute the whole part of your semester grade, therefore it is your responsibility to be well-prepared and take the exams.

If you are ill prior to an exam, let me know as soon as possible if you may miss the exam. The weight of the missed exam will be added to the weight of the final exam. You MUST take the final exam. No exception will be made for the above policy.

9. Communicating with the Instructor: Since this is an online class, every announcement will be made on Blackboard or through email. The Blackboard Course Site can be accessed at <https://blackboard.stonybrook.edu>. It is your responsibility to check them regularly. If you have any question, feel free to email me or talk to me via Zoom during the office hours, but please make sure there is no answer on the syllabus before contacting me. In addition, do not expect an immediate response via email. Normally, a response will be sent within 1 to 2 days.

(Note: If you cannot reach me, please email CAS_Dean@stonybrook.edu. This is intended as a safety precaution so that if a faculty member goes unexpectedly "offline", their department is aware.)
